Homebound Ministry

Hello everyone,

If you go to the Cathedral of St. Andrew Church in our diocese, you might notice four statues of saints with four different skin colors: St. Martin de Porres, St. Kateri Tekakwitha, St. Andrew, and St. Agnes De Thanh Thi Le (in the left corner). In this brief article, I would like to share a little bit about the only Vietnamese woman saint, whose celebration is this Tuesday, July 12.

St. Agnes De was known as a wife and mother of six children. She carefully taught her children the catechism and the Christian way of life. During a time of harsh persecution, she always supported and welcomed priests to her house. She was put in prison while trying to hide a priest in her house on the morning of the Resurrection Sunday.

Despite the many kinds of suffering she endured in prison, as they demanded she deny her faith, St. Agnes De kept an optimistic attitude and stayed firm in her faith in God. When her daughter visited her, she sobbed when seeing her mother's shirt stained with blood. However, St. Agnes De comforted her daughter: "Don't cry, I'm wearing a rose shirt, I'm happy to suffer for the sake of Jesus". St. Agnes De died in prison after being tortured and beaten severely but persevered in her faith in God. She is a patron for all Catholic Vietnamese mothers.

No matter who we are, what vocation we live, we all are called to live a holy life in all circumstances of our life. May St. Agnes De intercede for us to follow her example of how to be faithful to God.

Blessings,
Sr. Mai Do

Our festival is only two weeks away. We are in need of pop-up tents for our game area, music and a couple of other things. We would like to have 10 total. If you have one that we can borrow please call the office.

Saturday night our beef brisket/pulled pork dinner has returned. We are also planning a fun horse racing event for that night as well.

To celebrate St Mary Magdalen, our menu will be hamburgers, hot dogs, Italian sausage, Eggs rolls, the Filipino community will be serving chicken kabobs and pansit noodles. Tickets will be sold that day .

Please sign up to be a volunteer at our festival, we have many different jobs and you don't have to work the whole time.

There will be yard games to play, as well as a bounce house for the little kids and for the older kids we have the snack walk. This year we will also be bring back a golf contest. For something different try axe throwing. How good are your Paul Bunyan skills?

We are still accepting raffle items for our Sunday raffle event. Tickets are $1 each and with every 5 tickets purchased you will get one extra. You will be able to view these items after Mass this weekend, next weekend, and during regular business hours during the week.

Music Ministry

Last week I discussed the process of planning for a wedding at St Mary Magdalen. This week I will go over what to do when planning a funeral. This information may be used to pre-plan your own funeral or a family member's funeral.

A funeral Mass will retain the same structure of the Mass, but with extra rites placed at the beginning and the end. The family or pre-planner may choose the readings (1st, Psalm, 2nd, and Gospel) and the hymns. Appropriate readings are found in The Order of Christian Funerals; we have condensed this information into our own funeral booklet here at the Church.

Hymns at a funeral are a sign of the faith of the deceased and the family, but also a comfort to those left behind. Hymns that highlight our Christian hope in the resurrection are extremely appropriate. Songs that are meaningful to the family, but not sacred in nature may be used at the visitation or the luncheon, but not at mass. (If we wouldn't sing them on Sunday, we can't use them at a funeral.) The St Mary Magdalen Funeral Booklet lists song suggestions for each part of the mass.

Songs are used at the entrance, offertory, communion, optional communion meditation, Song of Farewell, and Recessional. The Song of Farewell is a specified text and cannot be replaced with a favored hymn.

At St Mary Magdalen, we have a small, dedicated group of singers that make up the Resurrection Choir. This group of people bring comfort and beauty through song at a difficult time in people's lives. In fact, the entire funeral liturgy is very beautiful to me. It is one of my favorite ministries as a liturgical musician. I consider it a great honor to contribute to this last act of faith and a family's goodbyes. If you have any questions regarding music or filling out the planning sheet for funerals, you may contact me or Laura in the office.
