Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On October 23, World Mission Sunday, we join Catholics worldwide in this annual Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church.

Pope Francis reflects on this year's theme: "You shall be My witnesses" (Acts 1:8). He emphasizes the call to every Christian to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

Beginning in 1822, the universal fund of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith provided some $7 million in help to the new and growing Churches in the United States. Your prayers and generous support today sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, and serve the poor.

Blessed Pauline Jaricot began this work 200 years ago. As Pope Francis reminds us, "She accepted God's inspiration to establish a network of prayer and collection for missionaries so that the faithful could actively participate in the mission 'to the ends of the earth.'" Her vision would lead to World Mission Sunday, which helps the Pope support missionary activity.

When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Holy Father to provide for the formation of our seminarians and religious men and women. You assist in building the schools and orphanages that care for children in places few visit. Missionaries can build churches in areas with scarce resources. Priests and religious Brothers and Sisters can buy food and the bare essentials that make it possible to proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the Sacraments.

I encourage your generosity on World Mission Sunday, especially in this bicentennial anniversary year. Your prayers remain your greatest gift, and your financial support is life-giving to our brothers and sisters in the world's most vulnerable communities.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend David J. Walkowiak
Bishop of Grand Rapids

World Christmas Carols

It's already that time of year! Every Christmas Eve we include carols and songs from around the world. If you have a favorite Christmas carol or hymn from your home country or cultural background, please share the music with me! You do not have to sing it yourself, but we welcome you to do so!

Help needed with Worship Screens

There has recently been times where I have had to ask people last minute before mass to help with the screens. We have the same small group of people providing help nearly every week, but that is not sustainable. Help is needed on the following dates. Please contact me if you can help. Training is provided.

October 22 & 23: Saturday 5pm Mass, Sunday 11am Mass

October 31: Monday 5pm Vigil Mass

November 1: Tuesday 9am Mass & 7pm Mass

November 5 & 6: Saturday 5pm Mass, Sunday 11am Mass

November 12: Saturday 5pm Mass

Singing confidently

Here is a link you can type into your web browser to practice the Gloria. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=muKVGahzW7k> (Alternately, you can look up this bulletin online and click the link.)

Next week's hymns:

Rain Down by Jaime Cortez, Lead Me, Guide Me by Doris Akers, Draw Near by Steven Janco, Christ in Me Arise by Trevor Thomson

Children's Choir

The children's choir did an excellent job! I was so proud of them. Eleven children were able to sing these songs after only a few week's rehearsals. If your child would like to join, please show up to Room 1 after 11 am mass (and coffee and donuts) on October 16th. The next time the children sing is November 13th.

Also, thank you to Laura Moore, our secretary, who created the vision of a fall harvest pumpkin patch for our young (and young at heart!) families to enjoy! It was really a wonderful time. Thank you to Phil Martin who helped her pick up the pumpkins and all who helped set up/tear down.

RESPECT LIFE

St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!

THANK YOU!

The tent is down for the winter thanks to Larry, Ken, Keith, Mike, Dave, Charles, Kevin, Phil, and the 4 people from Dad's Tents. The tent will be cleaned and some minor repairs will be made over the winter. We will let you know when it's time to put it up again in the spring. Thank you to those who helped.

Thank you to the 10 people who stopped in room 3 last Sunday to donate blood at our Fall blood drive. By giving an hour of your time you helped 30 people who are in need of blood or blood products. Hope to see you at our January drive.

During the reconstruction of the kitchen drain we have had to be creative when serving coffee and donuts and family dinners. Thank you to everyone who helped with multiple tasks. Together we got it done.

Thanks again to all our volunteers.

Hello everyone

This week, we celebrate the feast day of two great saints: Saint Luke on October 18th and Saint Pope John Paul II on October 22nd. They lived two centuries apart but both had the same love and the deep piety for our Blessed Mother.

Saint Luke is known as the author of the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. Among the Evangelists, Luke writes the most about the Blessed Mary. All the Joyful mysteries can be found in his Gospel: The Annunciation, the Visitation, the Birth of Jesus, the Presentation of Jesus and the Finding of Jesus in the temple. Writing the Gospel, Luke portrays Mary as the Servant of God, the virgin, full of grace, the Mother of our Savior, the Ark of the Covenant, the Sorrowful Mother.

Likewise, Saint John Paul II had a strong devotion to Our Lady. When elected Pontiff of the Church, he entrusted his papacy to the Blessed Mary by choosing the logo "Totus Tuus" means "I am all yours, and all that is mine is yours". He wrote two important documents about Our Lady: the encyclical "Redemptoris Mater" - Mother of the Redeemer in 1987, to prepare for the Marian Year, and the Apostolic Letter "Rosarium Virgilis Mariae" - The Most Holy Rosary in 2002. Pope John Paul II adds the five Mysteries of Light and proclaims the Year of the Rosary from October 2002 to 2003. Above all, he leaves us a special devotion by praying the Rosary daily, privately and publicly.

In this month of the Rosary, let us follow the example of these two saints to rediscover the power of the simple but most beautiful prayer. Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, may God grant peace to our family, our country, and throughout the world.

Peace,

Sr. Mai Do

Remember our parishioners

This weekend, let us remember and pray for Jeffrey Chandler and his family. Jeffrey's funeral was celebrated on Friday, October 14, 2022.

May he rest in peace.

October 22, 2022 8:30 to 3 pm
St Jude Catholic Church

The pandemic changed our world. Weddings, graduations, travel plans, and even Mass were canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic. The lifting of lockdown orders and the resumption of events has not returned us to pre-pandemic normal.

Keynote Speaker: Sister Colleen Ann Nagle, FSE, MA, LPC will provide an opportunity to learn an organized plan of action to help you process your lingering unease and move toward peace.

Your day also includes:

Adoration & Celebration of the Holy Mass
