NO PROPOSAL 3

TOO CONFUSING TOO EXTREME

ASK YOURSELF...

1. Do you want to repeal parental consent for abortion and bring back taxpayer funding for abortions?
2. Do you want to get rid of all health and safety regulations for abortion clinics?
3. Do you want to repeal the law that says only doctors can perform abortions?
4. Do you want to open the door to radical ideas like repealing age-of-consent laws for children having sex, and allowing children to begin gender-reassignment treatments without their parents even knowing?

Help needed with Worship Screens

There has recently been times where I have had to search for people at the last minute to help with the screens. We have the same small group of people providing help nearly every week, but that is not sustainable. Help is needed on the following dates. Please contact me if you can help. Training is provided.

World Mission Sunday

The Church, therefore, is missionary by her very nature. She continues the mission of the Son and the mission of the Holy Spirit by proclaiming to the ends of the earth the salvation Christ offers those who believe in him. We are faithful to the nature of the Church to the degree that we love and sincerely pro-mote her missionary activ-ity. As teachers and pas-tors we are responsible for keeping alive a vibrant Catholic missionary spirit in the United States.

Hello everyone,

In the principal document of Vatican II, Lumen Gentium, the Church highlights the significance of the Eucharist as “the source and summit of Christian life” (# 11). Indeed, through the Eucharist, we are nourished and granted grace, strength, and healing to live our vocation. The belief in the living presence of Jesus in the Eucharist guides us to act accordingly to revere our Lord wholeheartedly. This weekend, I would like to emphasize the tabernacle where the Eucharist is reverently kept and adored.

Tabernacle means “dwelling place”, the only place where the Eucharist can be kept for the adoration of the faithful and for the distribution to the sick. It is built solidly and located in the most special place in the Church or in the chapel to facilitate people to come and pray. A lamp or candle is put near the tabernacle to remind us of the Lord's presence. That is why we genuflect when entering the Church or bow down whenever we pass by the tabernacle. We can spend more time in prayer privately to the Blessed Sacrament before or after Mass and during office hours on weekdays.

The Churches and chapels approved by the bishop have permission to house the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle. Therefore, the Eucharist should not be kept inadvertently in any place outside the tabernacle even for a short period of time. If you are commissioned or allowed to bring Holy Communion to people or your loved ones, please follow the following instructions:

- Keep the Eucharist in a metal pyx and reverently carry it around your neck.
- Bring the Blessed Sacrament immediately and directly from the Church to the homebound and loved ones.
- Consume any extra Host right after the service.

Contact Sister Mai Do if you would like to have a training to perform this right, honoring our Lord Jesus.

Many blessings,
Sr. Mai Do

ST. MARY MAGDALEN PARISH

Faith Formation

Hello Everyone,

This past week, I attended a virtual conference hosted by the Augustine Institute. The title of the gathering was, "The Wisdom of Christ and His Church for the Good of Souls". During one section of the conference the presenter was speaking about the family being the domestic church. It was the second time in as many weeks that I had been reminded of that. You see during a baptismal preparation class I referred to the blessing that the parents often receive at the ritual, and it asks God to bless them as they are the first teachers of their child in the ways of faith. These experiences reminded me that as parents, godparents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and faith communities, we have the capability and responsibility to strengthen and nurture our family and therefore the domestic church. The USCCB has some simple suggestions on just how to do that;

Pray together as a family.

Have a crucifix in a prominent place in your home, and in every bedroom.

Begin new family traditions that reflect the liturgical seasons.

Teach children about charity and stewardship through word and action.

Speak openly about the presence of God in the joys and sorrows of your life.

I believe that most of you are already a living example of how to evangelize within the domestic church, but often our evangelization comes naturally and we don't always recognize it or put a name to it. So as we head into fall and we are spending more time inside together, let's try to intentionally support the domestic church.

God's Blessings,
Molly Wisdom
